DESCRIPTION

A detached bungalow set at the end of a long drive bordered by mature trees with a useful garage, separate workshop and store as well as new bespoke shepherds hut. Much of the house, garden and in particular the shepherds hut enjoy stunning country views over surrounding parkland and trees. The property has two spacious reception rooms, kitchen, three bedrooms and separate bath and shower rooms. Springmede has a particularly pleasant setting just up from the church, close to the National Trust Park. Living in Dinton provides direct access into the stunning surrounding countryside.

LOCATION

The property is situated in the village of Dinton, approximately 9 miles northwest of Salisbury. The village has a public house, primary school, pre-school, church, village hall and recreation ground; also, the National Trust property, Phillips House, with its parkland setting. Tisbury (railway station) and Wilton are both about 5 miles away whilst Salisbury offers a good range of cultural and leisure facilities; as well as a mainline railway station with regular services to London Waterloo in 90 minutes. Salisbury offers an excellent choice of schooling, including the reputable grammar schools of Bishop Wordsworth (boys) and South Wilts (girls) and private schools such as Godolphin, Chafyn Grove, Leehurst Swan and Salisbury Cathedral School.

Outside*Front

Splayed access off lane and a five bar gate onto long tarmac/shingle driveway. Narrow strip of lawn to one side with Portuguese Laurel and long stretch of Lonicera hedging. Wider lawn margin to opposite side with Conifers and three mature Copper Beeches, longer grass with meadow flowers to the side boundary. The driveway widens to the front of the house providing plenty of parking, access to the bungalow and outbuildings.

Garage

Constructed of block and rendered elevations beneath a tiled roof. Central barn style double doors with hayloft door above into a useful boarded loft space. Fluorescent strip, pendant light points and power points. Window to the rear aspect. This is wider than most garages and a useful outbuilding. Lean-to log store under a tiled roof with double doors opening onto the driveway.

The Gardens	Mature, secluded and beautifully landscaped. These predominantly extend to the front, side (south) and the rear of the property comprising lawns interspersed with specimen trees, shrubs and flower borders. All well enclosed by a mixture of fencing and hedging plants including Portuguese Laurel, Hornbeam, Photinia and Privet. To the rear of the property there is a raised Sandstone terrace accessed from the living/dining room and sitting room where a grapevine has been trained to the back of the house. From here glorious views are enjoyed over the garden and beyond to rolling parkland and countryside with woodland in the distance. Behind the house there is a further sleeper retained raised Sandstone terrace to appreciate the views as well as a recently acquired, new and bespoke, well appointed shepherd's hut which is fully insulated with light, power and plumbing.
Shepherds Hut	Open tread staircase rises to UPVC double glazed door into the main room. Barrel vaulted ceiling with LED downlighters, oak effect flooring, picture window at gable end with far reaching country views. Further views from the front door and gabling to either side. Roll top oak work surfaces with inset stainless steel basin, small drainer and mixer tap. Cupboard and shelving above, double cupboard beneath. Rolling oak door conceals cloakroom. WC with window to side aspect. This is an ideal home/office or relaxation area and has the benefit of electric underfloor heating.
