DESCRIPTION

An attractive detached Grade II Listed cottage constructed of timber frame with infill rendered panels, and brick and flint elevations beneath a thatched roof, with a modern barn-style extension under tile projecting to the rear. The characterful accommodation, featuring beautiful exposed beams and timbers throughout the original cottage, includes a triple-aspect sitting room, central dining room with log-burning stove and kitchen; while the barn-style section provides a vaulted living room with glazed doors opening onto the patio and rear garden, together with a double bedroom and shower room which also serves as a ground floor WC. To the first floor are three cottage bedrooms and a bathroom, with a second spiral staircase allowing the rooms to function independently, although two of the bedrooms are also interconnected by a doorway. The property enjoys an idyllic setting with the River Swift, a winterbourne stream, running to the front. The cottage and its neighbour have vehicular access via a small bridge over a chalkstream, leading to parking and a garage. Direct access to countryside walks. The main rear garden, enjoys a south-westerly aspect, is of a good size, and benefits from beautiful open views across farmland and up the side of the valley. The property is conveniently situated close to the church and a highly regarded primary school.

LOCATION

The property is situated in the of the village of Hurstbourne Tarrant which has a store, church, primary school, garage (for car sales only) and tea room. St Mary Bourne, just down the valley has two excellent pubs and a lakeside cafe/farm shop. There are bus services to Newbury (about 10½ miles) and Andover (about 6 miles), where a more comprehensive range of shopping, educational and leisure facilities can be found. The nearby town of Whitchurch (6 miles) has a mainline station to Waterloo (59 minutes) Andover and Newbury also have mainline railway stations. The A303 is close at hand allowing convenient access to London via the M3 and the West Country.
